

MY DREAM SCHOOL

My dream school would be in a beautiful city near the sea. The school would have a swimming pool. Famous people like Rihanna or Lady Gaga would teach us. They would sing us our lessons.

The head teacher would be very funny, he would wear a bathing thunk!
We would start school at 10 am . Friday would be great , all pupils would dress up as pirates or whatever.

Subjects would be simple, a lot of sport but we wouldn't have French lessons. we would have a lot of Science.

In my dream school, teachers would allow us to talk. We wouldn't fight with the others or insult them.

Teachers would allow us to wear bright colours or mini skirts.

Boys would have ties. The emblem of the school would be a dog who would sleep on a yellow sofa .

Children would have to choose their sanctions. Teachers wouldn't make us stay late if we wouldn't do our homework because they would let us do our homework in class.

It's just a dream, but how good it is to dream !
