

My dream school

In my dream school, a list of missing teachers is on the main door of the school. The doors of the classrooms are painted. Teachers are kind and there are no punishments.

In my dream school, you can select your favourite subjects and skip the others.

The first class begins at 9:30 p.m and the last finishes at 4:00 p.m.

The rules are very cool: the dress code is not excessive... The dress code allowed us to wear jeans, shorts... There aren't uniforms.

In my dream school, homework doesn't exist. There are just lessons to revise.
