

My dream school

In the school of my dreams we can choose our lessons but some are compulsory, and there are lots of subjects.

In the school of my dreams, teachers earn lots of money and they are chosen for their kindness and their patience.

In my dream school pupils don't have to wear uniform but provocative clothes are forbidden.

In my dream school there isn't any homework but pupils must have one half-hour of study once a day.

In the school of my dream pupils start to work at eight AM and they finish at six PM.

In the school of my dreams there is a big swimming pool with lots of slides. And pupils and teachers have to respect themselves and each other.

Margaux Kervellec