

I am....

I am a stubborn girl who likes fashion

I wonder if I can realize my dreams

I hear the applause of the audience after my fashion show

I see a sublime dress that I designed

I want to be a designer

I am a stubborn girl who likes fashion

I pretend to be Coco Chanel

I feel that I am surrounded by Louboutin shoes

I touch a silky material as light as the air

I worry that I will not succeed in my project

I cry when my favourite shoes are broken

I am a stubborn girl who likes fashion

I understand that I have to work hard to succeed

I say I will be rich and famous one day

I dream to have the biggest number of shoes in the world

I try to become the best

I hope to have a lot of success

I am a stubborn girl who likes fashion

The End...
