

SLEEPING BEAUTY AND HER COMPUTER

Sleeping Beauty was the most beautiful princess of her city. Though she was the most beautiful, she didn't manage to find the charming prince. Hopeless, she locked herself in her house to forget her unhappiness. Her father seeing her so sad, decided to give her a beautiful present: a computer.

The princess was very happy but a little bit surprised because she had never seen a computer and she didn't know how to use it. She started the computer then found a meeting web site.

Happy, she enrolled on the web site; she could now meet her prince!!
